78. Confidence is not about having every answer to every question but rather being open to each question to be answered.

79. A fraction of your life is what naturally happens and the rest is how you react to it.

80. A pessimist normally complains about everything; an optimist foresees change; while open minded realists adapt to circumstances.

81. Clear your mind before jumping into a conversation. A clouded mind does not reap good results.

82. The toughest thing to do is to decide to act, the rest basically depends on open minded perseverance.

83. In every single day, it's either you who run the game or the game runs you.

Chapter 7: Versatility

84. In life, winning is not the years of earning but rather how you adapted to the circumstances that made you a winner.

85. The strongest and the smartest does not necessarily imply that they are the ones to last. Sometimes it takes more than that and something called adaptability.

86. Should you encounter various challenges, the only thing that can bog you down is the inability to accept change.

87. Life in its own way come with changes that we need to embrace. It's those who fail to accept change that gets left behind in the race of life.

88. Any successful organization is made up of people who are capable of adapting to change.

89. Most individuals see opportunity as a rare occasion. Versatile individuals on the other hand, see the change as the spark of new opportunities.

91. Cold hard steel is useful until it is formed into something. Though it is a hard process but the rewards are truly amazing. The same concept goes for the changes in our life. Though hard, it can be done and the results are worth all the pain.

92. Like water in a vessel, a wise person adapts to the circumstances that surrounds him.

93. When you let go of what you are, you will open the doors to what more you could be.

94. Life has many mountains to climb. Do not falter if you fall because the journey in life is the reward for your hardships.

98. Passion is the driving force that made people the supreme beings on this planet.
99. When passion drives you, let your reason guide you and you will go as far as your eyes can behold.
100. Before we can feel the passion inside us, we must act it out in order to have a grasp of what it is.
101. Experiencing passion to someone that has never felt it before is like teaching what light is to a blind man.
102. Great leaders in the history of man have always had passion within them to excel among others for the greater good.
103. One good thing about passion is that you just cannot fake it.
104. A passionate start always ends up with amazing results.

105. If you ask our leaders, they will always have a good story about how their journey was passionately traveled.

106. Stop wishing for something to happen. If you really desire something, turn that desire into passion and get hold of what you want.

107. Love what you do. With love, you will passionately do your work and everyone else will follow.

108. Passion in life only runs out when we're out of breath.

113. Life is full of surprises and you will get one or even more each day.

114. You can find that the truth is very rare that telling is so delightful.

115. Surprising others can be simply done but surprising yourself is a whole different story.

- 128. Simplicity is the catalyst for evolution of human life.
- 129. If you cannot explain something to a 5-year-old child, then you most likely don't understand it either.

130. There isn't actually much in life that we don't know of. It's merely us who make the complications.

131. In any design, simplicity is taking out the obvious and leaving behind what's meaningful.

132. Free yourself from the entanglement of life. It is really an easy journey waiting to be enjoyed.

133. Nature is sophisticated but in a very simple way.

134. The simplicity of nature tells us that small things in life matter and that those small things make up everything.

Chapter 11: Gratitude

135. Be thankful for what you have and what you have not. All men have had misfortunes but not all have had blessings.
136. Gratitude can be seen when you are willing to return the same amount that you were grateful for.
137. The mere breath you take is an indication of life. If you are alive, be thankful for it.
138. Be grateful with what you are given until it is still there. Most of the time people fail to measure value until they are left with nothing.
139. Blessings come to those who are grateful for what they are given whether big or small.
140. In each day of your life, give thanks. It is never written what comes up next.
141. Don't be mad if roses have thorns, instead be thankful that thorn bushes blossoms roses.

157. The simple act of kindness is worth tenfold the amount of intention.
158. A mistake in kindness is far better than an act good with cruel intentions.
159. Do not be ashamed to say kind words.
160. The act of kindness is reason enough to persuade others to be kind as well.

161. There is no greater act than the act of kindness.

162. Every religion in the world teaches kindness for this is a virtue.

163. Everything that you spend will be lost and everything that you will keep will eventually end up with others. However, what you give to other will be something that you will get to keep forever.

Chapter 13: Humility and Reserve

- 164. We are all humans alike. You must never look down on anyone unless you are lending a hand to help them up.
- 165. Humility is not degrading yourself but keeping yourself from being self-centered.
- 166. Futile pride only sparks war but humility starts the revolution for peace.
- 167. For men of great power, humility is the hardest thing to do.
- 168. Humility should not be something that you take pride in else you wouldn't have learned it at all.
- 169. The act of humility is sometimes the hardest thing to conjure when in time of anger and despair.
- 170. The fastest way to earn respect is to learn humility and practice it sincerely.
- 171. Humility is that heavenly virtue that not all have been blessed of.
- 172. Swallowing your pride is the first step to learn humility.
- 173. Humble yourself among others. Pride is nothing but a futile yet dangerous thing that can drag you down.
- 174. The proud person is forever bound with his chain of commitment while the humble person is free of any restraints.

188. Every day is a blessing. Take this opportunity not only to make yourself smile but to also make others happy too.

190. As you pursue your goals in life, you need to have a persistent attitude and a level of energy that is resolute.

191. Your continuous personal growth lies in your persistence to achieve. You can never tell when you will completely bloom as an individual. It has its own time and with persistence, you will have a greater chance of achieving your full potential.

192. Being successful doesn't happen overnight. You need to be driven and persistent. Without these two, you can never expect to find yourself in the road towards success.

193. If you are already a persistent and driven person, you also need to make sure that these two traits do not turn you into an ignorant and stubborn person.

194. If you wish to become successful in life, you need to maintain a good level of enthusiasm even if after failing.

197. Be patient like a tree that grows tremendously over time. Be persistent like the persistent growth of grass even with consistent trimming.

198. Consistently doing things to hit a goal defines your character especially when you have constantly done it for three times or more just to achieve what you want.

199. When living life, you need to keep your persistence as small fire that burns inside you. This will help you get through as you go along.

200. Life is never easy and that is why you have to keep going no matter how hard it takes. This is the only way to clear your path and move towards having a happy and contented life.

201. If you wish to always be on top of your game and be the best at what you do, then you have to act as if you are the last person on the line. This way, you will consistently do your best and always strive to become better.

202. We all have problems. If you wish to overcome everything that you are going through right now, you need to make sure that you keep on going and you need to continue hanging on.

Chapter 16: Be Inspired Everyday

- 203. When you feel down and out, when you feel that you are about to give up, look around and appreciate the things that you have. Find something to hold on. Find something or someone that will help you keep going.
- 204. When you drift off to sleep, you will find yourself wondering about the things that you did or the things that you want to do. Figure out your deepest desire which you think will help you become a better person.
- 205. Merely asking yourself who you really are won't cut it. You are going to be defined by the actions that you take each and every day.
- 206. Dreaming of what you want to be or what you want to achieve is good. You might have even planned out the things that you wish to be doing or achieving in the long run. But, in order for you to achieve those dreams, you need to build a real, strong and stable foundation in order for your dreams to come true.
- 207. The mere act of thinking who you want to be should be coupled with the drive, determination and the passion to be the person that you want to be.
- 208. It takes a touch of imagination if you wish to succeed. Being imaginative can take you to great lengths.
- 209. You are in charge of your life. Nobody can make you do things that you do not want to do. So if you are aiming for something today, start right away. You and Now is a great combination.

210. Winners came to be through continuous attempt at winning. If you want to be considered as a winner in life, you need to keep on going even if you keep on losing. You will eventually reach the goal and become the winner yourself.

211. They say that if you are successful then you are happy. The truth is, success relies on happiness. Do what you love most and in time, you will achieve the level of success that you have always wanted.

212. Feel the need to become successful and you will eventually end up being one.

213. Remembering things is easier said than done especially if you are living a hectic life. But if you wish to test out your memory, then try to remember the things that you did a year ago. Remember, each day is a journey that is worth living and remembering.
